HB 215 - SB 499

February 8, 2001

SUMMARY OF BILL: Requires the local board of education to develop and implement an evaluation plan for all certificated employees, including the director of schools, in accordance with the guidelines promulgated by the State Board of Education. Such guidelines and criteria shall require written evaluations based on measurable performance standards and objectives and be conducted in the manner and with the frequency that the board determines proper. Such written evaluations shall be made available for public inspection; however, evaluative conferences shall not be subject to public meeting requirements.

Present law requires local boards of education to develop evaluation plans for certificated employees in accordance with guidelines promulgated by the State Board of Education.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase State Expenditures - Not Significant

Increase Local Govt. Expenditures - Not Significant

- Assumes there would not be any significant cost to state or local boards of education to add the director of schools to the present evaluation plan for certificated employees since many directors of schools are already being evaluated by the local boards of education.
- Assumes existing guidelines and criteria for certificated employees can be used to evaluate the director of schools.
